

Name:

CCSS RL.K.7 Describing the relationship between illustrations and the story.

L.K.F1 produce and expand complete sentences

Level 1

1. How do you know that mimi is crying when her monkey balloon blows away?

- a. Walking at the carnival
- b. eating a banana
- c. tears falling on her cheek

I know Mimi is crying because I saw her_____.

2. How do you know Mimi is happy when she gets her balloon back?

I know Mimi is happy when she gets her balloon back because she is _____.

- a. Jumping
- b. smiling
- c. crawling

3. What is on the page that gives you the hint that Mimi is thinking.

- a. thought bubbles.
- b. fishes swimming in the ocean
- c. monkeys swinging on the vines

I can tell that Mimi is thinking because of the

_____.

Name:

CCSS RL.K.7 Describing the relationship between illustrations and the story.

L.K.F1 produce and expand complete sentences

Level 2

How do you know that mimi is crying when her monkey balloon blows away?

a. Waiting for the bus	b. eating a banana	c. tears falling on her cheek

How do you know Mimi is happy when she gets her balloon back?

a. Jumping

b. smiling

c. crawling

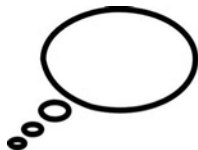

What is on the page that gives you the hint that Mimi is thinking.

a. thought bubbles.

b. fish swimming in the ocean

c. monkeys swinging

Name:

CCSS RL.K.7 Describing the relationship between illustrations and the story.

L.K.F1 produce and expand complete sentences

Level 3

How do you know that mimi is crying when when she loses her balloon and when the girl drops her ice cream in the ice-cream shop?

I see

a. tears on her face

b. she's eating a banana

How do you know Mimi is happy when she gets her balloon back?

Her mouth is:

a. frowning ☹

b. smiling ☺

What is on the page that gives you the hint that Mimi is thinking.

a. thought bubbles.

b. A slide on the playground

